

This week was spring break for the University. Because of break we did not communicate with our BA's besides setting up a meeting for this Wednesday. Before break we split up work between the PMs to create a list our stake holders, org chart, and RACI chart showing team roles and responsibilities. We will meet together with our BAs and just as PMs to finalize these documents as a team.