SharePoint

The company can generate around $1.8 million over the span of three years by utilizing SharePoint just from increasing our billable hours. SharePoint is a collaborative web platform where information can be accessed and shared throughout the whole company in real time. By utilizing SharePoint the company is able to improve productivity, and efficiency while also saving money.

SharePoint is a web based platform where information can be stored, organized, and shared amongst employees. The problem that the company currently has is trying to keep track of important documents, and as a result PMPs do not have time to get their clients; assignments completed. Utilizing SharePoint allows users to overcome this problem by filing documents in a designated location while also allowing members to have easy access to the files. As a result, with the increase in billable hours, PMPs are spending less time looking for documents and more time focusing on catering their clients.

Switching to SharePoint would cost the company $253,750 in purchase, maintenance, and cost of 1 PMT but the company would generate $2.1 million over the span of three years. Overall, utilizing SharePoint would give the company a three year net benefit of $1.8 million dollars. As a result, implementing SharePoint would increase efficiency and productivity thus improving the billable hours while also saving the company a vase amount of money.
