To whom it may concern:

As the technology specialist of Carolinas College of Health Sciences, I am writing to you in support of Mr. Jonathan Dacosta.

I had the privilege of working with Jon during the summer and I was very impressed by his willingness to learn new technologies. His development in the technology field through-out his role here as a Technology Specialist not only impressed me, but many of our faculty and staff members. His attention to detail, willingness to learn and calm and patient nature is inviting to Carolinas College.

His curiosity about his role with his drive for technology is what makes him such an exceptional teammate. Without reservation, I recommend him highly for your employment. Please do not hesitate to contact me to provide you with any further information regarding Jonathan Dacosta.

Best regards,

Chris Davenport
