To Whom It May Concern;

I have had the pleasure of working with Kyle Elliott for more than a year during his internship in the Recruiting Department at EmCare.

During his time at EmCare, Kyle was responsible for assisting with a variety of projects, including database management, (SalesForce), candidate sourcing and research for physician recruitment, reference checking, researching hospital and community info and creating Publisher documents for hospital fact sheets, researching Pediatric Fellowship programs, as well as various other projects.

Kyle has consistently demonstrated initiative and a great work ethic. Kyle has excellent time management skills and was never afraid to ask questions when necessary. His willingness to learn and reliability were qualities that have made him a valued member of our team and he will certainly be missed!

I would recommend Kyle without any hesitation. Please do not hesitate to call me if you'd like more information about this recommendation.

Thank you,
