

MIS5206
Quiz - Week 4

Your Name _____
Date _____

1. When you send an e-mail message, the message goes directly to the person listed in the " To:" box.
 - A. True
 - B. False
2. Junk e-mail, as in mass mailings, is annoying but harmless.
 - A. True
 - B. False
3. The best way to avoid viruses is to not open unexpected e-mail attachments from unknown sources.
 - A. True
 - B. False
4. Messages that appear more than once in your e-mail box may be more suspect of carrying a virus.
 - A. True
 - B. False
5. Which of the following file types should never be opened?
 - A. .EXE - Executable File
 - B. .BAT - Batch Processing
 - C. .VBS - VBScript Script File
 - D. All of the above
6. It is not safe to e-mail business documents to your home computer to work on them.
 - A. True
 - B. False
7. What is a virus?
 - A. An email message
 - B. An image that embeds itself in your file directory
 - C. A program that self-replicates
 - D. Data in various forms

8. Which of the following are examples of programs?
- A. .jpeg files, .tif files, and .gif files
 - B. Excel, PowerPoint, Access, and Word
 - C. Reports, records, and letters
 - D. All of the above
9. What is the most common delivery method for viruses?
- A. Email
 - B. Internet download
 - C. Infected disks
 - D. Instant messenger software
10. Which of the following terms generally fall under the descriptor "virus"?
- A. Worm
 - B. Trojan Horse
 - C. VBscripts
 - D. Both A and B